

Draft EA Request Order Form

Copies of this Newsbrief have been sent to everyone on the RMP mailing list, which currently includes more than 400 addresses. Due to the printing costs of the Draft EA document (which is over 200 pages long, plus appendices), the Draft EA is not being mailed to everybody on the mailing list. Rather, it is being sent to approximately 90 people including agencies, organizations, members of the Ad Hoc Work Group, libraries, the media, and the general public.

Copies of the Draft EA are available for public review at several convenient, publicly accessible locations, as listed on page 6 of this Newsbrief. If you would like either a printed or digital copy of the Draft EA document sent directly to your address, please fill out the information on this Request Order Form.
